Keynote Speaker

Col. Lawrence Wilkerson

Lawrence Wilkerson's last positions in government were as Secretary of State Colin Powell's Chief of Staff (2002-05), Associate Director of the State Department's Policy Planning staff under the directorship of Ambassador Richard N. Haass, and member of that staff responsible for East Asia and the Pacific, political-military and legislative affairs (2001-02).

Before serving at the State Department, Wilkerson served 31 years in the U.S. Army. During that time, he was a member of the faculty of the U.S. Naval War College (1987 to 1989), Special Assistant to General Powell when he was Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff (1989-93), and Director and Deputy Director of the U.S. Marine Corps War College at Quantico, Virginia (1993-97).

Wilkerson retired from active service in 1997 as a colonel, and began work as an advisor to General Powell. He has also taught national security affairs in the Honors Program at the George Washington University. He currently teaches at the College of William and Mary.

2017 Honorees

Senator Christopher "Kip" Bateman

NJ State Senator Bateman (R-16) courageously cast a vote that helped achieve the first-ever override of Gov. Christie's veto of a gun violence prevention bill.

Senator Loretta Weinberg

NJ State Senator (D-37) and Senate Majority Leader, Senator Weinberg has a distinguished 21 year legislative career and has been a champion for gun violence prevention.

Assemblywoman Gabriela Mosquera

NJ Assemblywoman Mosquera (D-4) is the General Assembly's leader on gun violence prevention. Her perseverance on the issue led to the passing of a bill to prevent domestic gun violence.

Muslims4Peace

Muslims4Peace is a prominent regional organization that has worked closely with the Coalition for Peace Action to promote peace, mutual respect, and inclusivity.
